DISCUSSIONS/PRESENTATION

Denise Summer stated she would like a more uniformed environmental checklist when reviewing site plans.

Mr. Ambrosio offered a motion, seconded by Mr. Halifko to agree to do a checklist when reviewing site plans. All were in Favor.

Ms. Summer also gave an update on the Die-Off near Brighton Avenue by stating that JCP&L was responsible for the spraying and they used a chemical called Romeo and it's considered harmless. She also stated she would like to write a letter that would be signed by the Mayor stating they should notify the residents whenever they are spraying. The Commission agreed to send a letter by certified mail.

Mr. Ambrosio stated he received and would review documents for the waterfront development of the Shark River Beach & Yacht Club.

Maryann Boyne suggested everyone be very vigilant when looking at plans because once the project is done nothing will be done.

Peter Longo informed the Commission that he attended the Board of Adjustment meeting and was not allowed to speak on the Hovson Project. He was informed that he relinquished his rights to speak by agreeing to be on the Environmental Shade Tree Commission.

ADJOURNMENT

At 7:53 p.m Ms. Summer offered a motion to adjourn the meeting, moved and seconded by Mr. Auerbacher. All were in favor.
