The Board Secretary went through the correspondence.

The Board goes over all the correspondence.

Len suggests that Al mails the Committee a letter from the Board, thanking them for all the years.

Chairman Len Pugliese thanked Albert and Carina for their dedication and efforts on behalf of the citizens of Neptune Township. Len indicated that it was his pleasure to work with them over the years and that he was happy that he had the opportunity to get to know them as professional colleagues and as friends.

Len, on behalf of the Board, thanked Herb for his years of tireless service on the Board. He indicated that Herb spent many years on the Board, dating back to the 1990s. He reminded the Board members of how Herb successfully led the fight for the closing of numerous unsafe boarding houses in Ocean Grove. Herb fought this fight on behalf of the residents of the boarding houses in particular and the residents of Ocean Grove in general. This fight often put Herb at odds with those in powerful positions, but he did not waiver. Because of his fortitude, today all the residents of Ocean Grove, boarding house residents and those not living in boarding house, have a better quality of life. Len commended Herb and thanked him for all he has done and for all he continues to do for his community.

Herb made a motion to adjourn the meeting and Len seconded. Motion adopted unanimously.
